MUST Eviction Prevention program was expanded due to the impact of COVID-19 and assisted 2,839 persons with more than $8 million of rental and utility assistance funded through the CARES Act and the U.S.

Department of Treasury.

MUST Supportive Housing Program consistently serves 179 individuals with 44,203 bed nights in longer-term stable housing with case management, medical assistance, education (GED Program) and employment services. These services were rendered in Cobb and Cherokee counties in order to help individuals and Veterans move toward self-sufficiency with stable housing, education, employment, and financial benefits.

MUST Rapid Re-Housing program provides assistance to individuals/families who were living in homelessness or facing the risk of becoming homeless through eviction and focuses on those clients with income limits of 50% or lower of the Area Median Income (AMI) levels. The Mobile MUST Program delivers healthy foods to people in low-income neighborhoods who are challenged by difficulties with poverty, unemployment and, maybe most important, lack of transportation. As we reach to serve clients in new ways, our vision includes taking our services on the road with a bus to deliver fresh, healthy foods in low-income neighborhoods and food deserts.

The greatest challenge our client families have in receiving food pantry assistance is transportation. Many low-income families do not have vehicles, and public transportation in the suburbs is scant. As many as 65% of our client families have trouble making it to our 30 school pantries to pick up their groceries.

The Mobile MUST Program will improve the quality of life for families who are struggling to feed their families. When food is brought to an area closer to low-income neighborhoods, it eliminates the transportation issues or minimizes the commute and gas use. It also frees up grocery money that can be spent on other essential items such as shelter, utilities, or other bills. This project will be most helpful to the families under the greatest stress in deserts.

The Mobile Pantry is a farmer's market style vehicle in which produce, meat, dairy and other food items are brought to 15 different locations in 4 counties monthly. Locations include schools, churches, apartment complexes, extended stays, etc. anywhere that people need help.

During the 2021-2022 fiscal year. A total of 11,253 household members and 468,094 pounds of food and toiletries were distributed to families.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4d, Other Program Services:

resulting in service to students from more than 100 schools. MUST works closely with school counselors and personnel to identify children who may be struggling due to hunger. Once a month, including summer, these families come to their school pantry to select food, toiletries, meat and fresh produce for their family. The program rose to new challenges amid the pandemic and MUST shifted from client choice food model to distribution of curbside family food boxes. Our team pulled together a logistical plan and delivery from 11 partner churches near each of the schools as well as delivery to apartment complexes and communities in South Cobb county. MUST has resumed program operations within schools with a hybrid model -- the food box program and some client choice. During the 2021-2022 fiscal year. A total of 5,153 household members and 262,222 pounds of food and toiletries were distributed for risk-students and families.
